Dan Burick
Brewmaster • Squatters & Wasatch Beers

After being tortured with a couple of desk jobs after college, Dan Burick started brewing beer at Squatters Pub Brewery six weeks after opening in 1989. He brewed for about a year before attending brewing school at the Siebel Institute of Technology. He later attended the Doemens International Brewing Academy in Munich, Germany. After turning the Squatters Pub operation over to Jenny Talley, Dan's focus turned to the company's package operations. Dan is brew master and general manager for the Utah Brewers Cooperative which produces all of Squatters and Wasatch award winning bottle and keg products distributed throughout Utah, and parts of Idaho, Nevada and South Dakota.

Dan is now tortured by the three women in his life, wife Megan and teenage daughters Tess and Emma, whom he spends countless hours with either at soccer games, fly fishing or roaming Utah's mountainsides.
